

1. What is Tokenator?

Tokenator is the platform linking you with the leading ICOs for getting their tokens with large discounts and bonuses.

2. How does Tokenator work?

Tokenator is the #1 Pool for Collective discounts on ICO deals.

- We give companies the additional channel for raising funds to their ICO projects. Working with Tokenator helps ICOs save their marketing spend.
- In exchange, we get large discounts for Tokenator subscribers for collective deals.
- Every day there comes a new deal on Tokenator where you can get best ICOs' tokens with bonuses from 20 to 100 %. We expand our subscribers' community, and the community gets the best prices.

3. Why use Tokenator?

Dozens of ICOs are held daily, we make detailed analysis and select the best of them. Almost every project offers additional volume discounts for participants with a large cheque. We make these special terms accessible to everybody by use of collective power. Tokenator allows everyone to be 'like a whale'.

4. How do you select the projects?

We analyze hundreds of token sales and select the best deals based on:

- blockchain technology application
- team and advisors strength
- marketing power
- project traction

We use international rankings and filter the projects to avoid scam.

5. Can I get my money back?

If the minimum cap of the deal you participated is not reached, Tokenator platform will automatically send your cryptocurrency back to your personal account.

6. What if the project I've participated in closes?

Tokenator's experts select the best token sales out of 300+ new ICOs every month based on the detailed analysis. We never give biased recommendations.

However, we are not financial, investment or legal advisors and cannot bear responsibility for the project's performance during or after the ICO.

Please, do your own due diligence or discuss with your advisors before participating in ICOs to make informed and responsible decision.

8. How to contribute via Tokenator?

First, Log In or Sign Up. Then follow the steps in your account. Do not send ETH/BTC directly from exchanges or exchangers - you will not be able to recover your tokens. Only send ETH/BTC from the address to which you have full access (including access to the Private Key).

9. What cryptocurrencies do you accept in Tokenator deals? Can I contribute using Bitcoin, Ripple, Monero and other popular cryptocurrencies? Can I contribute in fiat?

We are currently only accepting ETH and BTC. Some other cryptocurrencies may be added to Tokenator and we will notify all subscribers about it. Fiat currencies (USD, EUR, others) are not accepted.

10. How to create a MEW wallet?

- a. Using your browser, go to the MyEtherWallet site: <https://www.myetherwallet.com>. Please ensure that you see the padlock and the “MYETHERWALLET LLC [US]” secure site certificate in the browser’s navigation bar.

- b. Click on the “New Wallet” tab, and in the “Enter a password” field, enter in a strong password (a long password with upper-case, lower-case letters, special characters and numbers) that will be used to access your wallet. The password is absolutely critical in being able to access your ETH and tokens from the wallet so please do not lose/forget it.
- c. Click on the “Create New Wallet” button. Your wallet account has now been created.

11. When will I receive tokens to my wallet?

Usually you will receive your tokens in a few days after the official token distribution date. You will get tokens directly from the project.

12. Do I need to pass KYC?

Yes. In order to participate in Tokenator’s deals you will need to pass the KYC of the ICO you are participating in. The links and instructions to KYC are provided for each project separately.

13. Does Tokenator charge any commission?

Tokenator does not get any commission from its subscribers. We charge commission from the projects listed on Tokenator because we help them get more participants to the ICO.

14. How can I get updates about new deals?
